Item	Time	Desired Outcome	Action
1. Welcome and Review Agenda	5	Welcome and make necessary adjustments	Present: Kristin Masters, Iris Wallace, Mollie Jarrow, Curt Coleman, Jim Allen-Young, Suzanne Mueller-Tuescher, Nancy Aylsworth
2. Quick Business	5	Council is informed	Minutes from last meeting not available. Nancy will find them and send them out! Survey deadline this week. Jim will send out a reminder online.
3. 09-10 Budget News	15	Council is informed	Curt gave out newest budget and explained items. Two aspects that most affect AFE are moving Anne from RC to Library in BSSC big building and losing .4 FTE to .5 FTE (teacher hours). Discussion about what measures are being taken proactively in regards to increasing student numbers at AFE, and consequently teacher hours, and need for keeping Anne at AFE. Also Curt explained that our next date to look in regards to budget changes is after the election in May which will let us know if the new bond measure passes or not. Budget will likely change again and Curt is having to work with administration timetables, with much less input than in the past, and that is desirable for all.
4. Fundraising Committee Updates	10	Council is informed	There have not been fundraising meetings. -Curt will follow through with possibility of AFE Parent Club becoming a non-profit through Monarch or some other non-profit as an umbrella organization with a fiscal sponsor. -Nancy will ask CJ and others to prepare and present at next Town Hall Meeting. -Mollie will follow through with New Leaf and Carol to inquire about revenue from cards. Acknowledgement of Hatfield family's efforts with recycling and increase in escrip !!!
